

Huskies

Term 3

Hands-on learning is a winner in the Huskies. We love to explore with our hands and manipulate concrete materials whether in science, maths or any subject. Concrete materials help us learn because they make abstract ideas real, give us something we can see and touch, and let us practise through doing, not just listening.

